

Prof. Felicity Goodyear-Smith

Prof. Felicity Goodyear-Smith is a professor of general practice and primary health care at the University of Auckland, New Zealand. She is currently the Chair of the Wonca Working Party on Research. In this role she instigated panels at Wonca conferences whereby primary health care systems are presented and compared, enabling cross-national lessons to be learned both at the meetings and through subsequent peer-reviewed publications. She is passionate about primary care research and has co-edited two books on behalf of Wonca: International Perspectives on Primary Care Research and How to do Primary Care Research, both published by Taylor and Francis.
