

Profile

Ms. Natsuko Iino

1983 Graduated from the College of Liberal Arts, International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan.

Joined NHK (Nippon Housou Kyokai; a non-profit, nationwide, public broadcasting station in Japan) as its first ever female news reporter, covering issues around family and the aging population.

1999 NHK News Commentator for issues in social security and women's affairs

2012 Vice Chair, News Commentators' Office, NHK

2014 Director, NHK Kofu Broadcasting Station, Kofu, Yamanashi, Japan

2017 Lead News Commentator for issues in social security and women's affairs; served as Commentator in NHK TV programs such as "Jiron Kouron" (current topics and opinions) and "Kurashi Kirari Kaisetsu" (topics in our lives)