Kyoto is one of the most visited destination in Japan. The city proudly reigned as capital of Japan for 1,200 years before it moved to Tokyo. The history and heritage of this city lives on in the 1.5 million population modern city: Seventeen UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Sites are situated in a cityscape dominated by 2,000 temples and shrines. ## Welcome Message

Dear colleagues:

On behalf of the International Psychogeriatric Association (IPA) and the Japanese Psychogeriatric Society (JPS), as well as Congress Organizing Committee co-chairs Prof. Manabu Ikeda (Secretary General) and Prof. Hiroaki Kazui (the Chair of the JPS Meeting), I am excited to welcome you to the Joint Congress of the 21st IPA International Congress and the 36th JPS Annual Meeting in Kyoto, scheduled to be held on September 16-18, 2021.

This will be the third IPA International Congress to be organized in Japan. I believe that attendees of the 4th (Tokyo 1989) and 13th (Osaka 2007) IPA Congress have wonderful memories of our beautiful country.

In line with its theme, Smart Aging with MATES (Medicine, Arts, Technology, Engineering, and Science), the Congress intends to explore and envision an ideal and reasonable state of care for people with dementia and other old age-related mental disorders, with world-renowned professionals to share their knowledge and expertise in workshops, plenaries, symposia, free/oral communication, posters, etc. The Scientific Committee, under the leadership of co-chairs Prof. Masahiro Shigeta and Prof. Masaru Mimura, is in the process of developing a strong and interdisciplinary scientific program.

The city of Kyoto, needless to say, is the most beautiful, attractive, and historical place in Japan. The month of September is pleasant and one of the best times to visit Japan. I am sure that all of the attendees will experience the spirit of Japan.

I look forward to meeting you at the many educational and networking events to be held throughout the Kyoto IPA Congress, scheduled for September 16-18, 2021.

Best regards,

Heii Arai M.D., Ph.D.

Chair of the 21st IPA International Congress in Kyoto
